ALIVE	Frusciante, John	Foregrow (LP) (RSD 2016)	12" black vinyl, printed cardboard standard sleeve. John Frusciante's Foregrow doesn't sound like any Acid Test record, or any record, that's come before it. After the unlikely alliance between the Los Angeles label and the iconoclastic Venice, CA musician on Trickfinger, all bets are off. This one's truly a passage through night. Frusciante's using elements of John Carpenter's eternal scores, the drum programming DNA of jungle and footwork, and yes, a Roland TB-303, all slowed down to a crawl. Foregrow is a lurching, lysergic beauty which offers glimpses of his platinum pop instincts, but only behind the veil of true experimentalism.	LP	1	Acid Test	Elektronika	3831114	4260038311141	AT
ALIVE	Harper, Nick	The Wilderness Years Vol 1-3 Boxed Set (ORANGE, GREEN, RED vinyl) (RSD 2016)	3LP Coloured Vinyl Boxed Set and booklet. Exclusively for Record Store Day this Limited Edition of 500 copies brings together Nicks personal collection of songs onto a three disc set with an accompanying 12page photo booklet, depicting shots from Nicks personal archive. Each 180g disc pressed on coloured vinyl, ORANGE, GREEN & RED respectively, covering the periods 1994 to 2000, 2003 to 2007 and 2010 to 2014. From nine albums in total Nick has listened through the vaults of Harperspace to bring this collection of songs together. A difficult task to choose, not just the highlights, but also those which have a special place in Nicks heart. Disc 3 brings together 'The Last Guitar', 'Riven' and 'Nix' albums. All three radically different but still very 'Harperesque'. Son of the legendary UK singer-songwriter Roy Harper, Nick was born in London and raised in Wiltshire. Having played the guitar from the age of 10 and surrounded by the likes of Keith Moon, Jimmy Page, Robert Plant and Dave Gilmour as he grew up, it was no surprise when Nick made his recording debut on his father's Whatever Happened To Jugula? in 1985.	3LP	3	Weatherbox	Singer / Songwriter	2213431	5038622134310	AT
ALIVE	Jehst	Reel It In 7 inch (RSD 2016)	Limited edition 7". "I'm on a permanent weekend!" Jehst teams up with self-styled cult leader Lee Scott and intergalactic rap-hybrid Strange U on his latest single "Reel It In". Not to mention enlisting the assistance of eclectic beat-smith Mo Kolours on the production - to psychedelic effect! Over-indulgence is the order of the day as too much Juice Crew, Public Enemy (remember House Party?) and Ultramagnetic has left the three emcees with a lyrical hangover; one that can only be cured by the sound of a Transformers electronic heartbeat.Go figure.	7"	1	YNR Productions	Hip Hop	4332568	5060243325686	AT

For the Record Store Day, he is coming up with an insight of his work's result, and even some songs of those that he has already experimented in live...a powerful and deep sound that could only be created with such an experience, in the middle of the sea. ALIVE	Wedding Present, The	The Hit Parade (4X10inch Box Set) (Remastered) (RSD 2016)	(4x10 inch Boxset) Exclusively for Record Store Day, each of the 12 singles released in 1992 with its accompanying B side packaged in a newly designed Limited Edition 10inch boxed set of 750 copies. Remastered and pressed across four 10inch discs, each contained in its own archive styled inner bag and sleeve. The whole project has been under the careful eye of David Gedge himself and with brand new sleeve notes by long time Weddos fan Nick Frost this is fitting package for such a historic collection of singles.  Back the hey days of the explosion of the British indie rock scene, David Gedges Wedding Present were amongst the pioneers. Fast paced and obviously influenced by The Fall, Buzzcocks and Gang Of Four the much heralded 1987 debut George Best was released on their own Reception label. After the early singles and radio sessions were compiled and released as Tommy and the follow up Ukrainian album, the band signed to RCA and released their major labels debut album Bizarro and Seamonsters. Then instead of 'that difficult third album' they took the unusual step in 1992 of releasing one limited edition single a month. This had never been done before by any band, only the legendary Elvis Presley, so it was a brave step. But this was the Wedding Present and under Gedges leadership the plan was a great success. The A side for each single would be an original composition and the B side a cover version, which gave the band the opportunity to put their unique stamp on songs and experiment with some very interesting choices.	4x10"	4	Weatherbox	Indie / Rock	2213261	5038622132613	AT

CARGO RECORDS	DEWOLFF	DOG FOOD	Finally, for the first time in almost ten years, DeWolff will release an official Record Store Day 7"! DeWolff has been selling more LP's than CD's ever since their first release in 2008. ROCK 'N' ROLL DOCTOR is an almost inimitable song with a groove from outer space, characteristic for Little Feat. Little Feat was a big inspiration for DeWolff's latest studio album ROUX-GA-ROUX. Recorded at DeWolff's very own all-analog Electrosaurus Southern Sound Studio, the band explores the boundaries of their musical abilities and of analog recording techniques. For side B the band wolvarized the beautiful, dark Townes Van Zandt song WAITIN' AROUND TO DIE. No one with a soul can remain untouched while listening to Townes Van Zandt's music. His songs, that have become standards in American roots music, are eerily beautiful, dark and real. Townes' soul is still present in this version of Waitin' Around to Die, but it is now accompanied by a groove so thick you can cut it with a knife. Brazilian illustrator Pedro Felipe designed the artwork for this 7" as well as the front cover, and thus the face of the ROUX-GA-ROUX.	7"	1	ELECTROSAURUS / POPUP	INDIE	95271	8716059006475	ja / Cargo

H'art Musik	Buzzcocks	More Product In A Different Compilation – Best Of Ua Recordings 77-80	More Product In A Different Compilation showcases the best of The Buzzcocks recordings for United Artists Records on two LPs. Nearly every single A-side is included here, along with an array of B-sides (which oftentimes matched their counterparts) and indispensable album tracks. In this period, the Buzzcocks virtually invented the (yet to be named) genre of "pop punk", scoring instant classics with songs such as "What Do I Get," "Ever Fallen In Love With Someone (You Shouldn't've)," and "Love You More". H'art Musik	Shankar, Ravi	In Hollywood 1971	This is a treasure of a recording as it is not only a live recording of a rare morning concert but it was also an "at home" performance Ravi did for some special friends at his residence on Highland Avenue in Hollywood, California in 1971. It was during this gathering that he spoke about his distress over the plight of the people of East Pakistan (later known as Bangla Desh) in the aftermath of Cyclone Bhola. Being Bengali himself, he talked about wanting to do something to alleviate the suffering. George Harrison, in attendance that day, listened and from those conversations the seed was sown for what would later become the Concert for Bangladesh. RTD / GA / GTG	D.O.C.	No One Can Do It Better (RSD)	Get On Down is very proud to announce a Record Store Day reissue of one of the West Coast's most revered, yet underrated, hip-hop classics: The D.O.C.'s No One Can Do It Better. Produced entirely by Dr. Dre and out of print on vinyl in the U.S. for 25 years, this limited edition on black vinyl features original album artwork and thirteen tracks of rap heaven. When his debut album hit in mid-1989, The D.O.C. was in the vortex of the biggest hip-hop happening on the planet: the rise and rule of N.W.A. The group's breakout album Straight Outta Compton had hit one year prior and had created both controversy and worldwide critical acclaim. As rap history buffs and industry insiders know, the D.O.C. was a crucial behind-the-scenes member of the N.W.A. inner circle – his most important role in the early days of the group, besides his close working relationship with Dr. Dre, was writing many of Eazy-E's rhymes, including his hit 1988 single "We Want Eazy." But The D.O.C. wasn't in N.W.A. and never wanted to be – he was his own man, with his own vision. And after Compton proceeded to blow up (much like Eazy's 1988 LP, Eazy-Duz-It), the next crew album was No One Can Do It Better. Significantly, it was the first album where Dr. Dre showed his greatness as a solo producer for one MC. RTD / GA / GTG	Dead Can Dance	Anastasis	Die Rückkehr einer Legende! 16 Jahre nach der Veröffentlichung ihres letzten Studio Albums kehren Dead Can Dance mit einem neuen Meisterwerk zurück! "Anastasis" ist ein klassisches Dead Can Dance-Album, das aber nicht in die Nostalgiefalle tappt, sondern modern und zeitlos klingt, als hätte sich die Band gerade erst formiert. Epische Soundscapes, der unverkennbare Gesang von Lisa Gerard and Brendan Perry ergeben große Songs mit einer Soundfarbe, wie sie nur Dead Can Dance hinbekommen und alle Vergleiche zu anderen Bands obsolet machen. Dead Can Dance gehören seit ihrer Gründung Anfang der 80er Jahre zu den Bands, die den Begriff Kult Band quasi definiert haben. Mit ihrem Mix aus Gothic, Worldmusic und Pop gelang es ihnen Millionen Platten weltweit zu verkaufen, und insbesondere in Deutschland hat die Band eine treue und loyale Fanbase, was die innerhalb von 14 Tagen ausverkaufte Deutschland Tour beweist.	2LP	2	PIAS RECORDINGS	ALTERNATIVE	39215461	5414939276910	AT

RTD / GA /GTG	Ezra Furman	Songs By Others (12"+MP3)	Die Ezra Furman 12" erscheint auf TRANSPARENTEM VINYL.  Ezra Furman veröffentlicht zum RSD eine 12" mit Cover-Versionen, die die komplette Rock'n'Roll Ära umfasst (zumindest von den 50ern bis zu den 2010er Jahren) und Studio-, Live- und Backstage-Aufnahmen beinhaltet. Damit will er zum Ausdruck bringen, wie sehr es ihm schon immer Freude bereitet hat, die Songs anderer Künstler zu interpretieren  "A good song takes you far," sang Jackson Browne in den 70ern. It's true, and very strange-- how these little three-minute compositions crafted on a whim in a bedroom end up bringing us out on planes and highways, into bars and ballrooms and radio stations, pouring out our hearts and lungs for those who themselves were pulled out of their rooms and into the world by the power of song. Browne understood this: he himself was covering Danny O'Keefe's perfect ode to the bizarre bittersweet life of a traveling musician, and when I listen to it crammed in a van full of instruments speeding across rainy Germany, it hits hard.  I have always played other people's songs, alone and with friends, at home and on the road. I know our audiences' main interest is in our original songs, and for that I'm honored. But I can't seem to stop playing covers. Every time we are preparing to go on tour I can't help assembling the Boy-Friends and demanding that we learn a new cover song to play live. I listen to so much great music and just ache to be able to inhabit it more fully. I want to be Beck or Melanie or Jackie Wilson. So this record is me playing dress-up, with the help of my incredible band. (Don't miss that point-- the Boy-Friends are an incredible band that can do anything, without whom my voice would not be in your earholes.)	12"+MP3	1	PIAS COOP/BELLA UNION	INDIE	39222160	5414939935961	AT

RTD / GA /GTG	Iggy & The Stooges	Metallic K.O. (RSD)	First released in 1976, 'Metallic K.O.' was the fourth album from Iggy &amp; the Stooges, a classic, memorable recording of the Stooges confrontational last gig. The Stooges had not been heard since '73's 'Raw Power', and the sound of kamikaze Iggy in between new songs dodging eggs and glasses thrown by Hell's Angels gave him a new audience in the embryonic punk crowd. It defined Iggy as a punk originator, sold 100k+ and become the Stooges best-selling album. Previously re-issued as an extended, two-CD set with two complete shows (FREUDCD070), it's now been condensed down to the exact original album edit that shocked and inspired so many. In the 2007 remastering from the original tapes an original tape-speed fault was found – now for the first time the album can be heard in the correct pitch! As Lester Bangs said: "It's the only rock album I know where you can actually hear hurled beer bottles breaking against guitar strings". Side 1: Raw Power; Head On; Gimme Danger; Side 2: Rich Bitch; Cock In My Pocket; Louie Louie. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- 40th Anniversary Edition of the notorious, riotous "Last ever Iggy &amp; The Stooges show"!</li> <li>- Limited Edition in METALLIC VINYL, with inner bag telling the whole story, PLUS poster!</li> <li>- The original 1976 album (remastered) – it then outsold the first three Stooges albums.</li> <li>- Iggy &amp; The Stooges didn't play again for nearly 30 years; still confronting audiences!</li> </ul>	LP	1	JUNGLE RECORDS	PUNK/HARDCORE	FREUDLP096	5013145209615	AT

RTD / GA /GTG	J Dilla	The Diary (2LP+7") (RSD)	PayJay Productions, Inc. was the company James Dewitt "J Dilla" Yancey founded in 2001 to house his production company and his publishing company. The Estate of James Yancey has revived PayJay as a functioning imprint, and announced the release of J Dilla's long lost vocal album, The Diary. The tracks come straight from multi-track masters found on 2-inch tape shortly after Dilla's passing in 2006. Many were mixed by Dilla himself. Those that weren't have been mixed by engineer Dave Cooley, who worked extensively with Dilla during his years in Los Angeles. Using Dilla's original demo mixes as his guide, Cooley attempted to finalize Dilla's vision for these tracks, while keeping all of the elements that Dilla had in place in his original demos present. The Diary is an album of vocal performances recorded between in the early 2000s over production by the likes of Madlib, Pete Rock, Nottz, House Shoes, Karriem Riggins and others. The Record Store Day vinyl issue of The Diary includes a special 7" pressing of The Ex that will only be found on the RSD issue of the LP." A1. The Introduction A2. The Anthem (feat. RTD / GA /GTG	James Brown Revue	Live At The Apollo (1972) (RSD)	For the ten years leading up to 1972, the James Brown Revue was an outright superfunk freight train, speeding around the world and crushing all competition. This dominance stretched beyond the charts, too – the group was even more dynamic and exciting on stage, a fact that kept them sleepless and on the move, as audiences demanded more. From 1963 to 1971, James Brown had released not one but three albums recorded live at Harlem's famed Apollo Theater. The first volume of the series is still rightfully revered today as one of the greatest live albums of all time. But Volumes II (1968) and III (1971 – aka Revolution Of The Mind) were no slackers either, showing James and his incredible band (with talent including "Pee Wee" Ellis, Fred Wesley, John "Jabo" Starks, Clyde Stubblefield, Maceo Parker, Lyn Collins, Bobby Byrd and many more) at the peak of their respective powers each time, playing a litany of JB hits. Because of this, it will always be a mystery as to why Volume IV, which was recorded at the Apollo on September 14, 1972, was shelved. This is in no small part because the performers and songs heard here are some of the Godfather of Soul's (and the JB's) strongest. But shelved it was, full of fire but languishing for decades in the Polydor vaults. Thankfully we can now put that all behind us, with the first-time-ever-on-vinyl release of this incredible concert, from more than four decades ago. One look at the tracklist will make you salivate: from instrumental JB's classics like "Dance the Doo," "Gimme Some More" and "Hot Pants Road" to James'	2LP	2	GET ON DOWN	FUNK	GET54082	664425408218	Wholesale

Aber dass die Namen Daft Punk und Junior Kimbrough auf einem Tonträger gemeinsam erscheinen, war lange Zeit eher unwahrscheinlich. Doch dann wurden Daft Punk für die Yes Saint Laurent Fashion-Show 2013 gebeten ihre Lieblingsmusik als Soundtrack beizusteuern. Und sie wählten unter anderem das Stück „I Gotta Try You Girl“ aus Kimbroughs Album „God Knows I Tried“ (39131952). Um dieses Stück für das Programm perfekt einzubinden, erstellten sie einen speziellen Mix, den sie als „Music by Junior Kimbrough Edited by Daft Punk“ vorstellten. RTD / GA /GTG	Roo Panes	Little Giant (White Vinyl) (RSD)	Sometimes taking time to just focus on one thing – one hour, one artist, one album – provides an unexpected window onto a talent that, otherwise, could have been lost in the cacophony of contemporary hype. Roo Panes is a young British songwriter with a guitar to his chest and a heart swelling with hopes and dreams. A common onpaper pitch, perhaps, and one sold a thousand times before, but Dorset-born Panes has something special to offer those willing to wait a while for their favourite songs to settle into place.  Roo Panes's debut album, 'Little Giant', isn't a collection operating at the vanguard of a cutting-edge, ultimately transient scene worthy of clicks for the next few months. What you hear is succinct, honest songwriting, from a place of deep personal expression, resonating with universal truths and values. No follower of fashion, Panes walks to his own beat.  'Little Giant' is an embracing record, its gentle rhythms and compelling cadences topped off by Roo's marvelous vocal intonation, a voice that come characterized by a complete lack of artifice and affectation  Tracklisting 1. Der Track ist nur auf diesem Tonträger erhältlich. „Supernatural Soul“ ist eine Auskopplung aus dem gerade erschienen Album „Superantural Love“. Der britische DJ und Produzent Richard Blair gründete Sidestepper 1996. Zuvor arbeitete er im Studio bei Real World in England und beteiligte sich dort an unterschiedlichsten Produktionen, unter anderem denen von Peter Gabriel. Dann brach er nach Kolumbien auf, um an dem Album „Tambolero“ von Toto La Momposina zu arbeiten – einem Klassiker des Real World Kataloges. In Kolumbien war er von der Musikszene so begeistert, dass er sich entschied fortan in Bogota zu leben. Schnell entwickelte er mit lokalen Musikern verschiedene Produktionen die als Electro-Cumbia gelten. Das neue Sidestepper- Album ist mit traditionellen Instrumenten aufgenommen ist und bei dem die Elektronik nur unterstützend hinzukommt. The Times "Sunset Sons have huge anthems up their sleeves and remind me of The Killers &amp; Kings of Leon. Look out for them." The Sun "It's easy to see why they're considered a hot prospect: singer Rory combines the beard, hair and fractured croon of Kings of Leon's Caleb...with the louche keyboard skills of Brandon Flowers. Williams's distinctive growl, however, elevates the Sunset Sons from the pack." Guardian Die vergangenen 12 Monate hatten es für die englisch-australische Band Sunset Sons bereits in sich: Nominierungen für BBC Sound of 2015 und MTV Brand New 2015, Auftritte bei Festivals wie Glastonbury, T In The Park, Isle of Wight, Reading &amp; Leeds sowie umjubilte Shows beim Hurricane, Southside und Reeperbahn Festival. Bei der anschließenden Europatour im Vorprogramm von Imagine Dragons konnten die Musiker Abend für Abend zahlreiche neue Fans hinzugewinnen. RTD / GA /GTG	Superpitcher	So Far So Super (2xLP/180g+MP3)	Als eine von Kompakts wohl mythenhaftesten Instanzen hat SUPERPITCHER immer eine äußerst durchdachte und anspruchsvolle Releasepolitik verfolgt, eher das einzelne Werk zur Perfektion durchfeilend (und so längere Releasepausen riskierend) als es voreilig auf den Markt zu werfen. Dennoch vermochte der langjährige Labelkünstler ein beeindruckendes Portfolio aufzubauen, insbesondere wenn man sich das Ausmaß an ikonischen Tracks pro Release veranschaulicht - kein Wunder also, wenn ein Grossteil seines Katalogs immerzu ausverkauft erscheint. Fünf Jahre nach dem hochgelobten, preisgekrönten Langspieler KILIMANJARO (KOMPAKT 222 CD 80) ist es nun an der Zeit mit SO FAR SO SUPER zu Superpitchers einzigartiger Produktionshistorie zurückzukehren - eine verlockende Auswahl an Höhepunkten aus allen Schaffensphasen, die Untergrund-Club-Schieber sowie die Konzeptalbum-Reisser. Von JACKSON (bekannt von POP AMBIENT 2012) und frühen Erfolgen wie HEROIN, BABY'S ON FIRE (von TOTAL 4) oder der Total Confusion/Speicher-Hymne I WALK bis hin zu Markenzeichen-Tracks wie HAPPINESS oder RABBITS IN A HURRY finden sich hier eine Menge magischer Momente, zum Neu- oder Wiederentdecken - alles auf einem dichtbepackten, prachtvoll verzierten Vinyl-Release, das sich kein ernsthafter Fan elektronischer Tanzmusik entgehen lassen sollte. RSD-exclusive - Remastered auf 180gr Vinyl inkl Download Voucher! A1. RTD / GA /GTG	The Greg Foat Group	Cityscapes (RSD - 10" LP in silver metallic)	Greg Foat's music evokes a spirit of time and place. The 1960s (and early 70s) was a time when British modern jazz was breaking free from its trad jazz and mainstream fetters and discovering a whole new world of home-grown original music. London was positively buzzing with the leading protagonists of the day; Mike Westbrook, Ian Carr, Michael Garrick, Gordon Beck to name but a few. Foat rightly reveres this music and it's echoed in his own compositions. Not a copyist by any means, his works are vibrant and alive with the zeitgeist of the 21st Century. But there's undoubtedly recognition of a musical heritage that cannot and should not be forgotten. It changed the face of jazz forever and has since heralded the way for even more radical departures. Greg Foat's music is redolent of a special era when jazz was approachable and possessed a rhythmic imperative. There was also another kind of irresistible jazz, that bordered on the pop and rock music of the time propagated by the likes of Roy (Get Carter) Budd, Harry (The Sweeney) South, Brian Auger's Trinity and Soft Machine. But the origins of this soulful, funky and electrifying jazz also hark back to those 1960s innovators in soul jazz; Herbie Hancock, Horace Silver, Lou Donaldson and others. The Greg Foat Group has been releasing albums for several years now, all spectacular affairs, from 'Dark Is the Sun' (2011) to 'The Dancers At The Edge Of Time' (2015) and all on the enlightened Jazzman label. So this latest twin release of two ten inchers, Cityscapes and Landscapes offers a rare treat because for the first time, the listener is given a fascinating insight into the development of the Greg Foat Group. RTD / GA /GTG	Oid / DJ Koze	33 33 33 / Don't Lose My Mind (Ltd.Ed.) (RSD)	Reminiszenzen sind zum Mitsingen da! Pünktlich zum weltweiten Schallplattenladentag liefert Hamburgs Hitzschmiede Nummer 4, die nach wie vor kurz vor der Übernahme durch Universal Music steht, den nächsten Bürgersteighochklapper ab. Wenig bis nichts ist überliefert aus den Anfangstagen von Techno, die Rede ist oft von Atemmasken, Staubsaugern und Schuhen, mit denen die Leute ihre eh schon durch wochenlangen Tanz im Strobe ausgemergelten Körper noch dürrer erscheinen lassen wollten. Geschichte wurde in den Redaktionen der Lügenpresse verfasst und Clubaufnahmen in TV Studios nachgestellt. Die Protagonisten von einst leben dagegen den gleichen Lebensstil wie schon immer, Smoothies, perfekt sitzende Anzüge, eiserne Disziplin und mit der Tupperdose voll hand gemachter Sandwiches geht es morgens Punkt 9 ins Studio. Nur so entstanden und entstehen nach wie vor Melodien für Millionen. Pampa verstand und versteht sich seit je her in der Tradition dieser Techno Arbeiter, alles andere ist Tetris. Pünktlich fährt auch dieses Jahr wieder der 7,5 Tonner vor, mit nichts als Staub, Knistern, Hallräumen, zittrig programmierten Beats, einer Prise Vogelstimmen und Acid auf der Ladefläche! Mit Wolfgang Voigt Remix, der gut gelaunten Karnevalsnahe aus Köln, den Konzepte schon immer sehr interessierten, kommt diese Platte zu euch in die Läden. Souffood	Various Artists	Classic 45's - Mod (7" Singles Boxset)	Mod youth culture – music and fashion – exploded in the UK in the early 1960s and spread through the decade to include the USA. The term 'Mod' came from the fashion side and the clothes worn by beatnik fans of modern jazz, but the music of the movement was rooted in soul and R'n'B, embracing ska and beat-pop. The ten specially selected double AA side 7" singles in this box pull together twenty of the most diverse and exciting tracks of the golden era of Mod. Nearly fifty years later it is inevitably impossible to find mint copies of these great songs on vinyl. Includes The Small Faces, Yardbirds, the Spencer Davis Group, PP Arnold and the best of the era Housed in a hard slipcase, the ten 7" singles are 'dinked' as juke-box singles and the box includes a 'spider' centre for play.	10x7"	10	Demon / Edsel		CLASSIC45004	5014797894174	NEIN
Souffood	Various Artists	Classic 45's - Punk (7" Singles Boxset)	Punk shook the music industry to its foundations in the mid to late seventies, rejecting the excesses of mainstream rock and introducing energy, passion, and a DIY ethic. Often political and anti-establishment as well as aggressive and rebellious, Punk was a youth culture which re-invigorated music. The ten specially selected double AA side 7" singles in this box present twenty of the most varied and exciting tracks spanning those crucial few years. It's nearly forty years since many of these tracks appeared on vinyl so it is inevitably very difficult to find mint copies. From the initial burst of energy of the Damned, X-Ray Spex, and The Lurkers, the hardcore spirit of likes of The Exploited, to the punk poetry of Patrik Fitzgerald and John Cooper Clarke Housed in a hard slipcase, the ten 7" singles are 'dinked' as juke-box singles and the box includes a 'spider' centre for play.	10x7"	10	Demon / Edsel	PUNK	CLASSIC45003	5014797894167	NEIN

Soulfood	Various Artists	Songs The Bonzo Dog Band Taught Us (180 Gr. 2LP)	180-gram vinyl. Hand-numbered limited edition of 500. Irreverent and anarchic, the Bonzo Dog Band were one of Britain's best-loved 1960s groups. But their eccentric brand of musical humor was not without precedent; they drew much inspiration from so-called "novelty foxtrot" records of the 1930s, which they lovingly learned from 78rpm discs. This compilation presents the original recordings of all such songs that they recorded and performed live. Painstakingly remastered, it comes with detailed notes, rare images, and an introduction from the great "Legs" Larry Smith, core Bonzo Dog Band member. Includes tracks by Leslie Sarony, The BBC Dance Orchestra, The Savoy Havana Band, Jack Hylton & His Orchestra, Percival Mackey & His Band, The Rhythmic Troubadours, Hal Swain & His Band, Albert Whelan, Jack Hylton's Jazz Band, Whispering Jack Smith, Noël Coward, Bebe Daniels & Ben Lyon, Jack Payne & His Dance Orchestra, Jay Wilbur & His Band, Billy Cotton & His Band, The Continental Five, Jelly Roll Morton's Red Hot Peppers, Ray Starita & His Ambassadors, Jay Whidden & His Band, Roy Leslie, Jack Hodges the Raspberry King, and Guy Lombardo & His Royal Canadians. Soulfood	The Dictators	Live Rochester NY, July, 77 (180 Gr. Coloured Vinyl)	Hand numbered limited edition, 500 copies only, 180g coloured vinyl. The Dictators spat the lyrical disrespect and echoed the smart lipstick wit that David Johansen and the NY Dolls had employed on their home turf. On the surface, here was a similar bunch of sloppy goofballs intent on nothing much apart from avoiding the mundane drivel of the daily grind and poking fun. From 1973 onwards, the band were a swaggering bunch of misfits who'd absorbed the American dream and all the trash that goes with it, throwing it all back up in your face. They were the Dolls, the MCS and The Stooges, they were anything you wanted them to be, but most importantly, they were a punk band's punk band, and they were The Dictators! Interference dishonourably presents the loud, lewd and unabashed sound of New York punk rockers The Dictators, live from Rochester NY on 7th June 1977. Recorded in WCMF-FM studios and broadcast live, this is a raw knockout performance from the early NY punk scene. Presented with a professionally re-mastered original FM broadcast, background liners and rare archival photos.	LP	1	Interference		INTERLP 001	5296127000121	NEIN
Soulfood	Nirvana	Live On KAOS-FM, Seattle 1987	Hand numbered limited edition, 500 copies only, 180g coloured vinyl. The visceral power of one of the most iconic bands in rock and roll first emerged in Aberdeen WA in the mid-1980s. In amongst the now revered and widely recognised band scene in Seattle during this period, were Kurt Cobain, Krist Novoselik and Aaron Burckhard jointly known as Skid Row. Close friends of The Melvins, they were about to embark on a journey that would take Cobain and Novoselik to world stardom two years later. Their session for KAOS FM at Evergreen State College in 1987 was also their first demo tape and as such, Nirvana's first ever recording session. How pivotal these recordings are in terms of rock history is not really open to question, it's evidently obvious, but it's also a priceless opportunity to witness a time and place in rock and roll that can never be repeated. Interference very proudly presents the entire original KAOS-FM broadcast of Skid Row (Nirvana) live in session from Evergreen State College, Olympia WA on 17th April 1987. Professionally re-mastered original FM broadcast with background liners, interviews and rare archival photos.	LP	1	Interference		INTERLP 004	5296127000428	NEIN
Soulfood	The Cramps	Keystone Club Palo Alto, CA 1979	Hand numbered limited edition, 500 copies only, 180g coloured vinyl. The Cramps quickly became one of America's finest subculture manifestations, bred from the madness of 50s and 60s b-movie trash at the turn of punk, Lux Interior and his motley crew of proto-gothic punks shred the walls of Keystone's Palo Alto with a toxic stew of sexed up rock 'n' roll. They were an exotic cabaret of b-movie histrionics and debonair, pursuing lurid and sexual gratification. Lux Interior personified, and externalized what lurked behind the snarl of every rockabilly hero and even in death, wears it well. In Elvis' strut, in James Dean's wince, somewhere in the back of Little Richard's throat was the Cramps... drooling all over your face and walking away with your soul. Interference proudly presents the entire KFAT-FM broadcast of this legendary early performance by The Cramps live at Keystone's Palo Alto from February 1979. Captured in their grizzly, diabolical prime and before the release of their debut Songs The Lord Taught Us. Professionally re-mastered with background liners and superb rare archival photos.	LP	1	Interference		INTERLP 005	5296127000527	NEIN

Souffood	Dead Kennedys	Live...The Old Waldorf 1979 (180 Gr. Coloured Vinyl)	Hand numbered limited edition, 500 copies only, 180g coloured vinyl. The West Coast was certainly a scorching hotbed of Punk activity in the late 1970s through to the 80s. A fitting description considering the sweltering clubs that accommodated the hastily arranged shows. San Francisco's Dead Kennedys were undoubtedly one of the most pivotal bands of the era, being underpinned by the inimitable Jello Biafra. Recorded live at the Old Waldorf by the venerable Terry Hammer for KALX in Berkeley on October 25, 1979 and catching the band in their early prime with three of their four iconic singles featuring in the set. It's more than simply a blast, it's a ferocious fireball of frustration, devastation and contempt. Interference proudly presents the entire original KALX-FM broadcast of the Dead Kennedys live from San Francisco's legendary Old Waldorf on 25th October 1979. Professionally re-mastered with background liners, interviews and rare archival photos.	LP	1	Interference		INTERLP 009	5296127000923	NEIN
